Talks in Cuba Gain, Donovan To Return Home

HAVANA (UPI).

Brooklyn attorney James B. Donovan said Saturday his talks here with Premier Fidel Castro for the release of 1,113 Cuban prisoners "have progressed so favorably" he will return to the United States for brief consultations.

He made the statement after meeting Castro for two hours yesterday. The two men consulted for the first time Friday

Reliable sources said Mr. Donovan, who negotiated the release of U-2 pilot Francis Gary Powers, offered Castro a deal concerning cattle.

But there was no confirmation of the report and no further details. It was not known when Mr. Donovan planned to leave for the U. S.

The attorney said only he planned to return to Cuba for "further discussions" after his consultations in the U. S., where relatives of many of the prisoners live.
